                                             MOTION FOR A FURTHER
16   Defendant.   EXTENSION OF TIME

18   On May 14, 2008, this court issued an interim order permitting the parties to file

19   supplemental briefs in connection with defendant's pending summary judgment motion. The 20   deadline for plaintiff's supplemental opposition is May 30, 2008. On May 28, 2008, plaintiff

21   filed a request seeking an extension of time because (a) he reportedly does not understand

22   defendant's citations to his deposition testimony;[1] and (b) he would like to respond to several

23   (unidentified) documents he says he received from defendant.

24   Plaintiff has not shown good cause for an extension. He has had more than ample time

25   to prepare his opposition papers. The sole purpose of permitting a supplemental opposition was

26   to give him an opportunity to address the 11 pages of his own deposition testimony that he did

27

28   _____

          [1]   Plaintiff is advised that the court understands defendant's deposition citations to follow the conventional format for citing testimony. For example, the citation "905:5-906:8" refers to testimony appearing on page 905, line 5 through page 906, line 8 of the deposition transcript.

1   not receive before his opposition was due. (See May 14, 2008 Order, Docket #343). The

2   request for an extension is denied.

3   SO ORDERED.
